PARADE ON SUNDAY! NO, SIR, THERE'S NO TRAFFIC TO BLOCK

(Special To The News)
NEW YORK, March 18.—Well, Sunday was St. Patrick's Day, but do you think they would parade on Sunday, No, sir. There wouldn't be any traffic to block if you used Fifth avenue on Sunday.

You know there is nothing as overestimated as a parade of any kind. It doesn't draw crowds. The people that are lined along the sidewalk are just trying to get to the other side. That's all.

Nobody is interested in a parade but the fellow marching and his family who are compelled to go see how bad he marches.

Every city should have one street away from where it won't interfere with business or traffic. Call it Parade street, then let any organization go there, march, till they dropped.

Do that and see how big an audience they can draw.

Yours,
WILL.

They are getting ready to put the finishing touches on the new college building in the ninth ward. The new old Main Memorial should be ready for occupancy in about another month.

After all one of the funniest things after people, is the weather. Those very same people who were going hatless and coatless down street last week were shivering in overcoats on Saturday and Sunday.

There is no letup in the sporting world. Today Westminster leads the district off when they start in a vigorous training for track season. Track will be over shortly when baseball will gradually push it off the map.

A look at the Mahoning and Shenango rivers this morning will tell you that the water is just a little too high for comfort even here. The old Mahoning down by the Seventh is roaring swiftly and the water is just ready to overflow.

Although the barefooted lads left for the most part with the initiation of the cement pavements the first barefooted lad is still a good sign of spring. Thus far there have been no marbles, swimmers and fine weather but as yet there is no barefoot boy.

The groundhog came out this year on February 26 and not the day originally scheduled for him. Such is the actual observation of a family in the county who keep a pet groundhog. Each year he buries himself for his nap and the family keep a close lookout for his spring arrival. This year he stuck out his head on the 26th day of February. This is authentic.

Grass is beginning to turn green on some of the lawns about the city.

PLANE CRASHES INTO FREIGHT ON SIDING

Pilot In Critical Condition
And Will Not Likely Survive

(International News Service)
NEWARK, N. J., March 18.—Toll of lives in the crash of the tri-motored Ford sight-seeing plane here yesterday mounted to 14 today when Belmont Parsons of Brooklyn, one of two men who were not killed instantly, died in St. James hospital.

The only other survivor, Lou Foote, pilot of the big ship, is in a critical condition.

Mayor Jerome Congleton, assisted by James W. Costello, airport chief, and Lieut. Richard Aldworth, U. S. A., on leave and detailed to the local airport, spent much of last night laying plans for the sweeping investigation which will be launched today.

Almost Worst in History.
Parsons death establishes the crash as one of the two worst accidents in aviation history. On December 3 last, 14 persons were killed when a plane plunged into the ocean off Rio De Janeiro.

Foote and Parsons were riding in the cockpit of the giant plane. When the ship's motors went dead it crashed into the side of a stalled freight train, the fuselage striking first. Foote tried desperately to clear the train and this action accounts for the peculiar manner in which the plane crashed.

Foote is suffering from a fractured skull and fractured leg, while Parsons sustained fatal internal injuries.

Parsons was a student aviator at the Newark field and went aloft with Foote to obtain instruction in piloting tri-motored ships.

On Sightseeing Trip
The wrecked plane, which crashed a few minutes after hopping off from the Municipal airport on what was to have been a sight seeing trip over New York City and the suburbs, was to be carefully checked over today in an effort to learn what mechanical defect, if any, led to the crash.

Experts' Report On Floods Here Still Available

Was Made Following Flood Of 1913 By Noted Engineer;
Gives Exhaustive
Report

In connection with the discussion in city council as to the matter of survey or investigation of the flood situation here, in connection with the possible removal of the Rosena furnace dam, it is recalled that there is already a very comprehensive report available on this matter.

Following the flood of 1913, the situation was exhaustively surveyed by R. Winthrop Pratt, in conjunction with C. H. Millholland, who was city engineer at that time. A complete report was made with a course of action outlined. Part of the plan has been followed, and part has not.

However, the data secured at this time, is available now, and there is no necessity for a flood or river survey, if facts of this nature are desired.

GREENSBURG, Pa., March 18.—Police here were apparently baffled today in their attempt to identify the body of a man believed to be about 60 years of age, found in a stream at Newlinburg, near here, by school-boys.

The man was well dressed. The body bore no marks of violence. The name of John Clark, Jeannette, was found in a notebook in a pocket of the coat. No person of that name could be found in Jeannette.

Brookhart Has New Proposal In Farm Relief

Billion And Half Co-Operative Market Plan Advanced
By Senator Brookhart

WILL INTRODUCE BILL IN APRIL

New Measure Drafted For Farm Relief Will Ultimately Include Every American Farmer

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 18.—A $1,500,000,000 government cooperative, intended ultimately to include every farmer in America, empowered to purchase all surplus crops, authorized to seize the nation's processing, storage and market facilities and backed by a government pledge to pay all losses up to $500,000,000.

This gigantic plan will be proposed by Senator Smith W. Brookhart, (R) of Iowa, he announced today, as a substitute for any other proposal of farm relief submitted to congress at this special session, beginning April 15.

Brookhart defended his plan as one certain to stabilize agriculture, make agriculture prosperous and eliminate the farm problem forever. He declared the government would suffer no loss in the end and that ultimately the farmers themselves would own his proposed national cooperative, just as they now own neighborhood cooperatives.

Bill Is Drafted
Senator Brookhart already has drafted his bill for introduction when the senate meets. It would create a "farmers' national export cooperative," financed by an initial outlay of $500,000,000 from the federal treasury. A board of three directors would operate the institution, with specific authority to stabilize farm prices and handle all surpluses.

The Iowa senator pointed out that President Hoover while food administrator in war times—carried out a similar plan in regard to wheat and pork products. On one occasion, he added, Hoover bought $500,000,000 of farm products to control the American surplus and handled this gigantic deal with $59,000,000 profit for the government. If Hoover could do it in war times, Brookhart said, he can do it again in peace times.

Girl Near Allen-

IS FOUND DEAD IN CORN FIELD

(International News Service)
ALLEN TOWN, Pa., March 18.—Poison and witchcraft intermingled in causing the death of Verna Octavia Delp, beautiful 21-year-old farm girl found lying in a field near here, police were convinced today.

Miss Delp left the home of her adopted father, August Derhammer, at Green Pond, about 12 miles from here, Friday morning to visit a pow-wow doctor or faith healer in this city. That was the last seen of the girl until two men stumbled over the body lying in the rain-soaked field. The girl's satin slippers bore no traces of mud and the fact that the body was lying as it had been carefully placed, convinced officials the girl was murdered.

Traces of three deadly poisons were found in the girl's brain and stomach, by the coroner at a postmortem. The poisons were so violent the girl never could have reached the spot where the corpse was found by herself, physicians said.

Two pow-wow or hex doctor notes were found next to the girl's heart. She was known to have visited C. T. Belles, a pow-wow or "faith healer" nine times recently. Questioned regarding the girl, Belles denied seeing her on Friday.

The girl was reported in a delicate condition and police have started a search for her former lover who has been missing four months. They plan to question him to see if he knows any reason for the girl taking her own life or anyone committing the crime. Another pow-wow doctor also is being sought for questioning.

Rebels Reported Vacating Torreón

(International News Service)
MEXICO CITY, March 18.—Lieut. Col. Roberto Flores, the best known aviator in the Mexican army, flew over both Torreón and Gomez Palacio this morning and later reported through Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles, his commanding officer, that the rebels appeared to be evacuating Torreón and taking up fresh positions in Gomez Palacio.

(International News Service)
Conflicting claims of the opposing forces obscured the true situation existing in Mexico today.

While the federal government was declaring that Gen. J. Gonzalo Escobar's rebel forces were in full retreat, leaders of the rebellion claimed a decisive victory east of Torreón at San Pedro, Coahuila.

President Portes Gil announced the receipt of a message from Gen. Juan Andreu Almazan in which the latter told of entering the outskirts of Torreón without encountering opposition.

Rebels Claim Victory
Opposed to this was a statement from the rebel headquarters in Nogales, Sonora, to the effect that the federals were badly beaten in a battle at San Pedro. This statement also declared that about 300 federal troops were captured and brought back to Torreón. The rebel claimed the federals offered the majority of 200 casualties reported in the battle.

In Mexico City a clash was reported east of Torreón. The government version, however, was vague. The report lacked in detail and treated the clash as minor.

Believe Battle Near
Mexico City, March 18.—A battle is believed imminent between federals and rebels at Gomez Palacio, Durango, 30 miles north of Torreón. Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles, former president and now war minister, advised President Portes Gil that he believed the combined federal forces under Gen. Juan Almazan and Gen. Saturnino would intercept the rebels under Gen. Jose Escobar in the region of Gomez Palacio.

Calles' advisers indicated that the rebels were still falling back from their positions on the Coahuila-Durango border.

NOGALES, Sonora, Mexico, March 18.—With heavy fighting under way in the Torreón sector where according to rebel headquarters General Jose Gonzalo Escobar, revolutionary generalissimo has launched an offensive against General Plutarco Elias Calles' federal army, news of a new battle was expected momentarily today from another front.

The long awaited siege of Mazatlan, Sinaloa, most important seaport of the west coast of Mexico, will begin within 36 hours if not already started, rebel leaders predicted early today.

An insurgent army under General Ramon Irujo is now reported closing in on Mazatlan from the north, ready to storm fortifications defended by a federal contingent consisting of approximately 2,500 troops under Gen. Jaime Carrillo, while advance Irujo columns under General Robert Cruz have taken up attacking positions near the outskirts of the city, another rebel contingent composed of approximately 80 former Mexican regulars who are known as the "Carrasco Division" was reported rapidly approaching Mazatlan from the south according to an official military bulletin issued early today.

With rail lines in the vicinity destroyed and highways leading out of the city blocked, the only means of federal retreat in case of defeat was believed to be by water according to rebel headquarters.

Irujo warned all foreign vessels to leave the harbor indicating he intends to shell the federal battleship Progreso which was reported to have arrived at Mazatlan from San Francisco for the purpose of providing a means of escape for Carrillo and his staff in the event Mazatlan falls.

ELBA, Ala., March 18.—Graphic stories of thrilling experiences in flood-swept Alabama were related by refugees today as rescue workers at Elba, Geneva and other hard hit cities strove to restore conditions to a semblance of normalcy.

A visit to the stricken cities of Elba and Geneva revealed that while great havoc had been wrought and that property damage would run up into the millions of dollars, the loss of life would be negligible, in fact. Ben Lee, 80, a Confederate War veteran, is the only known casualty at Elba, although several negroes were reported drowned here. Lee died of heart disease as he saw his home floating down the flood waters of Pea river. At Geneva there is no loss of life so far as known.

Damage at $4,000,000
Property damage at Elba, a city of about 2,000 population in Coffee county, was estimated between $2,000,000 and $4,000,000. The property loss at Geneva, county seat of Geneva county, with a population of 2,500, will probably total $4,000,000.

Elba was a ruin of ruins and nearly all of its homes were demolished by the floods, and while the receding flood waters revealed that the main (Continued On Page Fifteen)

Colonel Charles Lindbergh

States

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, March 18.—A coast-to-coast multi-air mail transportation system which will lower the time between the Atlantic and Pacific to 36 hours is "contemplated," according to E. W. Smith, vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad. "But it is too early to make any statement relative to the new service," he added.

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, figures in this advanced step in transportation, according to information from reliable sources here today. It is understood that the Transcontinental Air Transport, Inc., of which Col. Lindbergh is consulting aeronautical engineer, will inaugurate the service, and that Col. Lindbergh will blaze the trail on the first trip.

Columbus Changing Point
The service will line-up as follows, it is said: Passengers will leave New York on the American, crack Pennsylvania limited, at 2 p. m., remaining aboard the train until it reaches Columbus, O., where a transfer will be made to airplane. The air trip will be broken by stops at other Dodge City, Kansas, or Las Vegas, New Mexico, for fuel. The transport is due to arrive at Los Angeles shortly after midnight Pacific time.

Smith said the above was "practically correct" as a broad outline of the plan, but said that it was not yet out of the speculative stage.

MEADVILLE, Pa., March 18.—It appears today that the Junior prom at Allegheny college, here, will be a formal affair.

"The battle of the tux" apparently had been won by the girls who held out for the prom to be strictly formal, which the male students believed otherwise and declared there weren't enough tuxedos in town to go around.

The turn in the fight came Saturday when an inter-society dance was held, admittance to which depended upon the wearing of a tux. There were 124 couples present, the largest attendance. It was said, at any inter-society party ever held at Allegheny—and the male members of the party wore tuxes!

HARRISBURG, March 18.—Following a conference of state political leaders here last night, the legislature was expected to act favorably on the demand for some form of voting machine enabling act and probably some action will be taken on the proposed four cent gasoline tax this week.

This was the first conference since the fiscal code was agreed upon at a meeting of Governor Fisher, W. L. Mellon and Joseph R. Grundy of Bristol and other leaders five weeks ago. The proposed repeal of the anthracite coal tax was also discussed but no announcement regarding the probability of favorable action was forthcoming.

Voting Machines.
It was agreed, however, that a voting machine enabling act should be passed, but whether this measure would be in the essential form of either the Davis or Harris bills now pending in committee was not made known. Another conference was scheduled for today to clear up other problems facing the legislature.

Meanwhile the house will pass tonight the Griffith motor code which carries with it an increase in automobile drivers' license fees. The bill increases the present fee of one dollar to two dollars and practically no opposition has developed against the change. Increases in bus and truck fees are also provided.

Speed Regulated
The bill regulates the operation of all vehicles on the highways of the state and at present eliminates the present speed limit of 35 miles per hour, no limit being contained in the bill. However, when the measure reaches the senate, it is understood that a limit of 40 miles per hour will be inserted. The Griffith bill has the endorsement of the administration.

The house tonight will also pass finally the Goodnough bill carrying a deficiency appropriation of approximately $326,000 for the ordinary expenses of the state government during the present biennium. # Novena Will Start Tuesday

Annual Novena To St. Anthony To Start At St. Vitus On Tuesday

WILL CONTINUE THIRTEEN WEEKS

The annual and big novena of the year at St. Anthony, that of St. Anthony, which continues for 13 consecutive Tuesdays and ends on the feast of St. Anthony, June 13, will start Tuesday at that church.

Rev. Fr. N. DeMita, pastor of the church, will be in charge of and conduct the services, while Rev. D. J. McNamany, assistant pastor of the church, will deliver special addresses on the life of St. Anthony every Tuesday evening.

The novena starts with two masses Tuesday, one at 7:30 a. m. and his mass at 8:15 a. m. There will be an opportunity afforded all those desiring to make the novena to make their confessions prior to the masses.

There are indications that the novena this year will be of greater interest and to increasing numbers of people not only from this city but also from Youngstown, Ellwood City and many other points, by reason of the fact that this church not only has a relic of St. Anthony and the right given by Rome to hold these services, but the fact that Rev. Fr. N. DeMita on his recent visit to Rome, secured a number of things, including a special shrine in which the relic will repose, which will be used in the services for the first time.

There will be the exposing and kissing of the relic at the services. The making of the novena by persons in all health or distressed in mind is expected and has always resulted in much good for those participating and this occasion is expected to prove no exception.

The Tuesday evening services will start at 7:45 each night.

Fifty three bills will come before the senate for final passage tonight while five are on the second reading calendar. Among those on the third reading calendar are the Moore bill which provides for a second additional judgeship in Washington county and the Sales bill which would control the sale, possession and licensing of firearms.

More than 150 bills have found places on the house calendar for the session tonight and 97 of them are second reading bills which can be acted upon finally tomorrow.

The Talbot bill providing for a permanent gasoline tax of three cents to be collected from gasoline distributors will pass second reading tonight and then be returned to the house ways and means committee to rest a while with the Sterling bill which carries the same amount of tax but provides for collection from the retailer. Both bills may be buried eventually and a substitute bill introduced which will carry a permanent tax of three cents, a temporary tax of one cent and provide for collection from the distributor. A substitute bill would probably have administration support.

Forty bills on first reading include the Turner bill regulating aeronautics in Pennsylvania and providing for the licensing of planes and aviators; the McGregor bill exempting advertising slides and films from examination by the State board of censors; and the Marcus bill making certain marriages voidable.

Railroads Are Very Busy Now

According to employees of the Pennsylvania and the Baltimore and Ohio located in this district, there are enjoying a record amount of freight business for this time of the year at the present time. The police were advised by Mr. Bronkalla, assistant superintendent of A. & P. stores in this city, on Sunday that a robbery had been attempted at their store, 123 West Washington street, during the previous night. STAR LORE

BY ARTHUR DEV. CARPENTER

It was popular notion in the early centuries, that the stars were golden nails driven through a crystal sphere and clustered on the under side.

Sir William Herschel in the 18th century began to discover the real nature of the stars. After 1860 the spectroscope came to be used for analysing the physical composition of stars. They are vast globes of incandescent gas, consisting of such chemical elements as found in our planet. Physical matter exists in one of three states—a solid, a liquid, or a gas. It is believed the world was a temporary hot gaseous star.

Start New Mail Service On Bus

Slippery Rock And Grove City Get Improved Mail Service Today

Initial pouches of New Castle mail intended for shipment to Slippery Rock and Grove City via the new passenger-mail bus service left the New Castle office shortly before 11 o'clock this morning. The bus leaves the city at 11 a. m.

Only Slippery Rock will receive mid-way service because of the new line since Harrisville and other smaller places have not been designated by the government as stopping points.

Classes of mailmatter allowed for the bus will be first class, special delivery, parcels handling and newspaper mail. Parcels not stamped special handling will not be taken by the bus.

According to postoffice officials, the service will be operated on week days only and not on Sundays. The improved service will greatly expedite mail service to Grove City and the surrounding community. Complaints were to the effect that the train service there provided had mail delivery to the college towns.

Iowa Drug Users Reported Decreasing

(International News Service)

DES MOINES, March 18.—Drug victims in Iowa have decreased 3,500 since the Harrison anti-narcotic law was passed 14 years ago, according to Capt. H. G. Higbee, federal narcotic agent for Iowa.

There are at present less than 500 drug users in the state, the agent declared, and the number is still declining.

Full cooperation of physicians and medical societies and the driving out of "peddlers" of narcotics, Capt. Higbee believes, will in time eliminate the use of drugs and reduce the number of victims to a negligible figure.

Nearly 900 trucks in France are operating on the new producer gas.

ENDS BRONCHIAL COLD WAY DOCTORS ADVISE

Many Here Quickly Relieved
By Method Hospital-Certified
For Home Treatment

Ending deep seated bronchial colds is no longer a slow, disagreeable or expensive job! For doctors realize the serious danger of neglecting such colds and they have approved for home use a method that is inexpensive, pleasant and quick—as numbers of New Castle people have found to their relief.

Miss Marie McDonald, for example, had neglected a stuffy head cold, hoping it would "cure itself," as others had. But instead, it got worse, spreading down into her throat and bronchial tubes. She coughed all that night and the following day had a fever of 101. Then her brother called the family doctor, who advised double strength doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral—a concentrated mixture of wild cherry, terpin hydrate and other ingredients recognized by hospitals as the quickest and most effective to stop deep seated colds.

With the first pleasant swallow she felt its heating comforting warmth—from her nose passages deep down into her chest. Her cold soon began clearing up and by night her fever was down to normal. She continued taking Cherry Pectoral, as directed, and in another day or so was entirely free from all traces of the cold.

Note: See other cases reported daily—will certify by the attending physician.

Just a spoonful of Cherry Pectoral today and you will feel like a different person tomorrow. At all drug-gists.

Pink, Shiny Toes.
The Little Birds.
Alas, Poor Bears.
Moral Russia.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1929, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Important news from Palm Beach where prosperity gets its coat of winter tan. Ladies, "the very nicest" walk on the beach in silk pajamas, wearing sandals, no stockings. The sandals reveal their little toes, and these toes are manicured, the nails nicely rounded, beautifully polished. Carlyle could have written about that.

There is good in everything, and manicured toes will be good for the feet of generations to come. Women having spent ages squeezing their feet, almost eliminating the little toe, will now realize that a foot to be beautiful must be treated intelligently.

The pleasures of our "upper classes" at Palm Beach will interest future historians. At one party six clowns drove tiny pigs and another exhibited the smallest living mule, named "Spark Plug." That was intellectually most diverting.

Then there came a "tacky" party, all trying to look poor, wearing rags and tags, cheap cotton and calico dresses. And how they did laugh as they saw each other. Marie Antoinette dressed herself in the clothes of a shepherdess and pretended to be a little milkmaid in her Little Trianon. That was dangerous in old France, because the French royal "tacky party" actually ruled France. Palm Beach's tacky party only rules Palm Beach.

In an old fable little birds in the wheat field were worried. They heard the farmer's son say, "We must cut that wheat tomorrow." The mother bird said, "Don't worry." But when the farmer himself said, "We must cut that wheat tomorrow," the mother bird moved her little brood.

Wall Street speculators paid little attention to federal reserve gentlemen, bankers and others saying, "You are gambling too much in Wall Street; you will suffer if you persist." But now that Farmer Mellon, boss farmer of high finance, says Wall Street ought to be careful, perhaps Wall Street will listen.

Bears bit the dust in Wall Street Friday, and bit it hard. Stocks went up from five to 10 points. The woman turned and "call money" cost only 7 per cent, while time money for "legitimate business" cost 8 per cent. How long business can thrive on a usury basis remains to be seen.

We read that in Russia young people expelled from their association a boy or girl guilty of indecent jazz dancing in public, also boys and girls guilty of public flirtation and this "up-to-date" nation laughs.

It need not laugh. If Russia takes life and decency seriously, and we do not, Russia will win, and we shall lose.

The loose coat of Charles I. laughed at the stiff-necked Puritans. But they chopped off Charles' head, established themselves in New England and accomplished a good deal. Cromwell, their leader, inspired fear after he had been dead for years.

Dwight B. Heard of Arizona, who died Friday, went to Arizona a young man to find health. Arizona gave it to him, and he saved a fortune in automobile and unlimited devotion for nearly 30 years.

The state has lost a powerful citizen, and the Arizona Republican an energetic, able publisher.

Mr. Simson, secretary of state, says putting a tax on Philippine imports would be "following the policy of George III with the tea tax." While the Philippines are United States territory, it is not probable that any tariff wall will be raised. But it is useful to remind Filipino friends that the independence they seem to crave would certainly mean a tariff.

And there is this question: What would happen if a little later 10 or 20 million Asiatics in the Philippines should be working at Asiatic wages, in Philippine factories and plantations, in competition with American labor, on a free trade basis?

Prof. Card of Philadelphia says women will soon wear dresses made of asbestos, fireproof, shiny as silk, more durable than any cloth, easily cleaned with a wet cloth, costing less than other materials.

All interesting, but women probably won't wear asbestos. Imitation pearls are as handsome as real pearls. Synthetic rubies and sapphires are made exactly like the real. But woman insists on having the real.

According to grand jury investigations in New York where 13 are indicted, a rum syndicate has a fleet of ships, with expert buyers abroad. Perhaps the "five and ten penny" five years in jail, $10,000 fine, may discourage this. Probably not.

It works out all right. Families with no children usually have a dog to occupy the back seat.

Two-faced people are kept so busy looking in both directions they can't see where they are going.

It isn't an orthodox apartment if you have room for two guests at once without putting out the cat.

If the brain leaves considerable parking space inside the skull, the germ of swiftness will find it sooner or later.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 6:09. Sun rises tomorrow 6:05.

Do you know what would happen if all people in New Castle used bread baked in New Castle? Well, that bread factory on Sampson street, near the "liquid bread factory," now also closed, would probably start up and a parade of Youngstown bread wagons would be stopped. There are a whole lot of little things you can do to help New Castle.

If every stockholder in The Castleton Hotel would eat just one meal a week there, the chances are he would get many times the amount he spends that way back again in dividends the same year.

The pear and apple are from Europe. Spinach came from Arabia. The sunflower was brought from Peru. The mulberry tree originated in Persia. The gourd is an Eastern plant. Walnuts and peaches came from Persia. The horse-chestnut, is a native of Tibet. Cucumbers came from the East Indies. The quince came from Crete. Radishes came from China and Japan. Peas are of Egyptian origin. Horse-radish is from southern Europe. Ice cream came from Italy.

An authority on women's dress in Chicago declares "Every line of the body should be suggested in gowns for afternoon and evening wear" during the coming summer. Well, is there anything more to suggest?

Investigators along this line report that robbers and thieves get away with over three billions dollars of American money in a year. All we got to say is that it is far too much and too good for the crooks.

Whenever we want a good laugh we get a list of the bills and their titles presented to the Pennsylvania legislature. Some awful nuts get elected to the legislature, it seems—at least they act like nuts.

A young woman was asked by a professor to write a brief definition of her conception of a self-made man and wrote as follows:

"A self-made man is like a self-made cigar. A lot of Bull wrapped in a transparent cover."

There is a new industry in New Castle that employs some folks and it is not popular with some people. It is the new collection department of the New Castle Credit Exchange. Those who owe and will not pay are going to find some inconveniences.

Hosiery makers are seeking a perfect leg to use as a model for making hose. Most any man can tell where he has seen what he at least has thought was a perfect leg—but most men are just judges of legs!

It is said that a great many Americans are getting out of Mexico to escape being inconvenienced or perhaps plunked during the revolution. Americans stay away from that country all the time.

Happy thought! Make marriage less transitory by giving the diamond at the end of the fifth year.

Harry Thaw is now being tried in New York for striking and biting an actress lady during a New Year's party in Thaw's New York apartment in 1927. If they publish all the evidence given in that case more laws will be passed and newspapers will be curtailed in their publications more than ever.

They sat in the swing at midnight. But her love was not to his taste; His reach was but thirty-six inches. While hers was a forty-six waist.

Another way to clean up some real money without taking any chances is to bet that a passenger train and an auto will be nose and nose at a crossing. FOR SALE.

The following advertisement recently appeared in a New York newspaper:

"For Sale: Packard 1929 De Luxe Sedan, $2,400. Light eight, purchased in September, $2,700, driven 5,000 miles, excellent condition. Wire can't reach pedals and I'm tired arguing—Box XYZ."

Below is the only answer the advertiser received:

"Dear Box XYZ: In these days of competition among those of the fairer sex, why observe more superstition and let one so sorely vex? Every tale must have its lesson: Each cloud, they say, is silver lined. And so I do not mind confessing what I have in mind. It behooves to remember Packards do not grow on trees. And one the vintage of September is far too much to which to sneeze. Take my counsel, advertise. Do not your wisdom so bedim; Keep the Packard—it is wise—And find a girl of longer limb."

EVERY MAN HAS IN HIMSELF—

Storehouses of power he has never touched. Vast acres of undiscovered possibilities. Passions that will unman him unless he masters them. A better self that no man has ever seen.

The most dangerous enemies he will ever have. The greatest menace to, and the surest hope of his own future. More possibilities than one lifetime will ever reveal.

It just shows what will happen when Messrs. Morrow and Lindbergh quit good-willing for a moment to think of something else.

Root's World Court Parleys Followed With Keen Interest

American Press Generally Expects Veteran Statesman To Bring About Acceptance Of Formula Which Will Insure Adherence

Progress toward breaking the deadlock between the United States and the nations now adhering to the World Court is followed with interest and generally keen sympathy by the press of this country. Discussion of the subject discloses widespread confidence in the ability of Elihu Root to bring about acceptance of a formula which will insure American membership in accord with the reservations of the Senate.

The legal experts who have been revising the Court statutes, the BROOKLYN DAILY EAGLE explains, "will provide for various situations which are covered in the reservations of the United States."

A new protocol, embodying the revised statutes, will presumably be submitted to all the Court members. To avoid question or dispute, the new protocol would have to be submitted to the Senate. All the important changes it will propose are made in deference to the questions raised by the United States Senate in its reservations. Our new Senate has fewer isolationists than the old, and there is reason to hope that a resubmission of the Court question would produce quick and favorable action.

"Every hint is of a gradual coming together on a phrasing that will work," says the DES MOINES REGISTER. "This is probably because everybody recognizes that we will be the staunchest supporters of the Court and of its advisory opinions."

For we have more to gain than any other group can by other means by getting judicial determination of intergroup relations. The BINGHAMTON PRESS holds that "it is evident that Mr. Root is making progress," that "he is doing business with international jurists and diplomats who have the confidence in him and his ability."

"Mr. Root's powers of persuasion are great," declares the RICHMOND NEWS LEADER, "and if the major powers are really anxious to have America subscribe to the protocol, there is no reason why they should not endorse the proposal of Mr. Root. Their O. K. would virtually assure its acceptance by the smaller powers. Acceptable or not in its present terms, the Root proposal reflects the determination of Mr. Hoover to put the influence of America behind the machinery for the prevention of war."

"If the World Court is to be afflicted with the dry rot of technicality," argues the PHILADELPHIA RECORD, "membership in it will not be essential to our national welfare. It is a human and alive, practical and a force for the peaceful adjustment of international difficulties, the great minds engaged in its tasks can find a workable solution of these difficulties. Why may not the Hoover administration promulgate a revision of the Monroe Doctrine to fit 1929 as the original fitted 1823—and the World Court formulate an adaptation between it and international law? Let the Monroe Doctrine and international law try a fifty-fifty method of accommodation. Neither is pertinent."

The WASHINGTON STAR believes that "in light of the news from Geneva, there can be small doubt that the way is being paved for American entry into the World Court, and that Geneva is gratifying to know that it is gratifying to know that America's desires and to acknowledge their validity." The Star expresses the hope that "half-splitting, for once, will be shelved in favor of statesmanship." The CHARLESTON EVENING POST also feels certain that this nation is nearer to adhering to the Court than it has been since that institution was set up.

"Mr. Root assumes that all concerned would be reasonable and conciliatory rather than obstinate and wilful," the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS suggests, with the added comment: "Unless this tacit assumption is adopted as a major premise, any argument in support of international peace measures is fallacious. If the World Court is to prove itself a useful agency, all the nations represented in it must be ready to make reasonable concessions by way of promoting its effective functioning."

"Mr. Root says, in effect," interprets the BALTIMORE SUN, "that he believes that the nations represented in it must be ready to make reasonable concessions by way of promoting its effective functioning."

The Test.

If they shall say of me, He shared what I felt he knew. And sharing pain he knew, Did all that he could do To soothe and ease the sting, I'll ask no finer thing.

If only they shall find, When comes to me the end, The thought that I was kind And served them as their friend, For all my stretch of days I'll ask no sweeter praise.

Goals far beyond my strength I cannot hope to gain, Achievement's farthest length Men stronger must attain. But I should meet the test, Of those who know me best.

And if they find me true, Willing and glad to bear All that I've power to do, Ready with all to share What little joys I gain, I shall not be in vain. (Copyright, 1929, Edgar A. Guest.)

The Way OF THE World

By GROVE PATTERSON

THE MIND IN ORDER

It is usually a pleasure and also a sanitary and profitable experience to clean up desks, closets, bureau drawers and the like from time to time and to put your things in order. It gives you an orderly feeling and a certain very definite satisfaction from knowing exactly what you have and where it is. It is even more important, from time to time, to clean up the mind and to see that it is in order. That doesn't mean the mind should be dusted off and closed up. The doors should always be kept open for the reception of new ideas, but it helps us to face the facts and to straighten up what we will go over our beliefs and our prejudices now and then and come to some conclusions as to what we know and do not know, and as to what we believe and do not believe.

AS TO FAITH

There are men and women who will not believe anything that does not sell itself to their reason. To take that position is to place too high a value on your own limited reason. There are many things undoubtedly true that the reason cannot comprehend.

ANGER

The condition of uncontrolled anger is the condition of the beast. The beast knows no restraints that come from a trained mind or the human spirit at its best. Therefore it is always best, if you find you have slipped into anger, not to do anything while in that state that calls for the exercise of judgment. For example, it is never safe to write a letter when angry. In anger we are not normal. We are almost certain to do the wrong thing. Animals have anger but they do not have judgment.

FISH AND UMBRELLAS

Jack Warwick, famous paragon, quotes somebody as saying that "a fish has been discovered which can walk overland from one lake to another and live out of water six months at a time." And then Jack says: "It would make a better story to have the fish carry an umbrella." The fact is that for fish to carry umbrellas is not far out of the picture. The writer, on a ship in the Caribbean, saw several Portuguese umbrellas. Over the back of each fish was a little canopy—a part of its curious body—which made the creature look strangely as though it was carrying a parasol.

DELAY IS DANGEROUS

A young woman was being cross-examined in court. "How old are you?" asked the judge. "I hesitated," she said. "Every second makes it worse."

How convenient! The new money will go in the return envelopes provided by General Motors credit organizations without folding.

Junior High Clubs Active

Work of Reorganization For New Semester Is Completed

After the reorganization of 1928-29 activities at the new George Washington Junior High school was completed, the work of reorganization for the new semester is now in full swing.

This week the first club meetings of the second semester were held and the second will come on Tuesday, March 19. Donald F. Copson, faculty member and director of extra-class activities at George Washington, is more than enthused over the fact that out of the 27 clubs that were offered to the pupils, it was possible to form 23. But 13 of the students in the building asked for a study period instead of the club period, indicating that most of the students, at least, have caught the club spirit.

Several new clubs have been formed this semester and Mr. Copson states the one main objective will be to bring all of the club activities into a closer relationship with the regular work of the classroom. Now that the auditorium is completed, the various clubs will be given a better opportunity to offer their work to the rest of the school.

Following are the clubs now in operation and the sponsor of each:

Art club—Miss Burkart.

Audubon society—Miss Willett.

Aircraft club—Mr. Holt.

Dr. Jordan To Be Special Guest At Sportsmen's Feed

State Secretary Of Agriculture Cancels Engagement To come Here

It will be of interest to the sportsmen of this district to know that Dr. C. G. Jordan, a product of Little Lawrence and the secretary of agriculture for the state of Pennsylvania, will be among the guest of honor at the annual banquet meeting of the Lawrence County Sportsmen's Association to be held in the Cathedral on Thursday evening, March 28.

After three letters concerning the affair to Alderman O. H. P. Green, committee, Dr. Jordan in his most recent letter states that he has cancelled another engagement in order to be present.

He explains in doing so that he considers his first duty to his old home town New Castle, and that his heart has been in the work that the association is doing for many years. Dr. Jordan has always been an enthusiastic game conservationist and has been one of the big aids in making it possible for the Lawrence County Sportsmen's Association to propagate game and fish in this section.

Since he is willing to set aside another date to come here, it is anticipated that the precedent that he sets will have the effect of materially increasing the attendance at the big banquet.

To Cost $750,000 To Take Census In Pennsylvania

(Special To The News) WASHINGTON, March 18.—The United States census bureau is preparing to spend approximately $750,000 in counting the number of persons living in Pennsylvania for the fifteenth national census to be taken this year.

When the fourteenth census was taken in 1920, the population of the Keystone State numbered 8,720,017, but officials of the census bureau are preparing to count at least 10,500,000 residents of the state in the coming census. They feel that the field expenses of conducting the count in the State will approximately $750,000. The bureau estimates that the expense for counting the population of the country as a whole will average eight cents per person.

MR. DUCK LOSES HIS TEMPER. Drake stared at Peter as though he couldn't believe his own ears. But Peter paid no attention to him. He went right on with what he was saying.

"You do not sleep at night, Drake. You have just said night is the time you visit the feeding grounds—so how can the frogs keep you awake when you know as well as I do that night is the time they make the most noise. When the sun shines the frogs are too busy to do much talking and then, too, I suppose the bright warm light makes them sleepy just as it does me. No, my fine fellow, you will have to make up another excuse for treating the frogs so badly."

Now nobody in the world likes to be caught telling a fib, and it made Sir Drake very angry to think that the boy had found him out.

In a fit of temper he ducked his head under the water and puffed and splashed and tried his best to splash his accuser, kicking out with his feet just as hard as he could. Not a drop touched the boy, though; he was too far up on the bank. Then Sir Drake began to scold, and what he didn't say was not worth saying.

"Meddlesome good for nothing. Think you are smart to catch me in a fib! As if the frogs didn't croak in the daytime as well as at night! You better learn the habits of the pool people before you go round talking about them!"

"If I don't like frogs that is my own business and nobody else's and one excuse is as good as another for not doing so. Don't you ever have moments when all you wish to do is to sit still and think of nothing—just nothing?"

"It doesn't matter whether you have or not" continued Drake without waiting for Peter's answer. "It makes me mad to pick out a nice, quiet spot away from the ducks and ducklings, and believing I am all alone, settle down upon the water, fix my eyes upon the far-off skyline and make ready to forget all the world and then—ker-plunk!—something splashes into the water beside me with such force that the drops fly into my eyes."

"My heart misses a beat as I shoot out in the stream sure that an enemy is upon me and then I discover that a fat green frog is grinning at me from a lily pad near shore—a pad that he has hopped back upon after scaring me half to death. Quack! Quack! I wish they would all get stuck so deep in the mud that they could never get out. I do! But no such luck!"

"FLAVOR ZONE" Cooking is better—because it's automatic

In cooking a roast, a well browned zone must first be formed on the outside, for it is from this savory crust that the flavor is drawn into the meat as it continues to cook.

The Westinghouse Flavor Zone Oven performs this browning operation, as it does the cooking operation, under full automatic control.

Westinghouse automatic time and temperature controls, plus the sealed heat principle of oven cookery, browns and cooks your roast to perfection without the slightest attention from you.

You put the meat, and other foods if you like, in the oven, make two simple adjustments and forget your cooking until dinner time. When you are ready to serve it the roast is cooked with all the flavor and zest a roast can have—better than if you had spent tedious hours watching over it.

No other range, fuel or electric, performs first the browning and then the cooking operation under full automatic control.

Let us demonstrate this new and better cookery. Or if more convenient, phone or write us for our booklet "The Story of Flavor Zone Cooking."

Fat Comes at 40 to most people—for this reason

At about the age of 40 most men and women take on fat. Medical men know the reason. At that age the thyroid gland often loses power. That gland largely controls nutrition. One of its functions is to turn food into fuel and energy. The food goes to fat when it weakens.

The modern method of treating obesity aims to correct that deficiency. Physicians the world over employ it.

That is the method embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for over 20 years. That is one reason why excess fat is far less common than it used to be.

The Marmola prescription has been perfected by one of the greatest medical laboratories in the world. It is used by countless people to bring weight down to normal, in a scientific way. You see the results in every circle, in youthful figures, new beauty, new vitality.

Every box contains the formula—complete. Also the reasons for the good results. When you see the fat depart, you will know exactly why.

Try this method. No abnormal exercise or diet is required. The object is to feed the system what a gland fails to supply. Watch the fat depart, day by day, the new vitality return. You will be amazed and delighted. Don't delay. A normal figure means much to you. Go get Marmola now. See what the first box does.

Marmola prescription tablets are sold by all druggists at $1 per box. If your druggist is out, he will get them at once from your jobber.

Federal Court At Erie Opens

March Term Of Federal Court
Opens At Erie Today;
Two Judges Presiding

RUM CONSPIRACY CASE IS FEATURE

ERIE, Pa., March 18.—The March term of Federal court got under way here today with Judges E. P. Schenck and R. M. Gibson on the bench and the U. S. District Attorney, John D. Meyer, with five assistants, in the city to prosecute all criminal cases.

The grand jury, which will sit here, was to consider the alleged interstate rum running conspiracy which sixteen persons were named in warrants procured by Prohibition Administrator John D. Pennington at Pittsburgh. This case is considered the most important one on the calendar. Whether it will be tried at the session here in case true bills are returned, was not announced, but it is believed it will be held over until the special April term of Federal court scheduled to be held in Pittsburgh.

Leaders Are Sought.
So far the government has been unable to apprehend the men it alleges to have been the leaders in the rum conspiracy. Archie Negleman and Albert H. Scates, both former prohibition agents. Three others named have not been found.

Sheriff Arno S. McClellan of Greene county, is the most prominent of the eleven arrested in connection with the conspiracy. He was given a preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner Roger Knox at Pittsburgh last week. The hearing was continued and decision reserved. He and the others who have been released on bond were ordered to be here tomorrow when the Government plans to present the case to the grand jury. Three of those arrested, who were unable to furnish bail, were removed from the Allegheny county jail to the Erie county bastille.

Council Board To Study Legislation

HARRISBURG, March 18.—Members of the executive board of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women will meet here Tuesday to study a number of measures in which the organization is interested and which have been introduced since the February session of the board.

The Council is now on record as favoring a voting machine enabling act, a bill to permit the holding of a constitutional revision convention and a remedial legislation guarding the employment of women and minors.

Recommendations of the executive board are certified to member councils which are asked to back the legislation in which the State Council is interested.

Plan To Care For Soldiers' Orphans

HARRISBURG, March 18.—The Legislature has authorized appointment of a commission to study the present and future needs of the Pennsylvania Soldiers' Orphans' School at Scotland, the only institution of its kind in the State. The resolution creating the commission was sponsored in the Senate by Senator Albert Davis, Lackawanna.

After the Civil War a number of such institutions were conducted. As the demand for care of the orphans of soldiers decreased they were all closed but that at Scotland. Due to the Spanish-American and World Wars the institution at Scotland can no longer meet the demand.

Rees, chorister of the church, a number of the better known musicians of the city gave their services for the affair and the large crowd was a testimonial to the ability of the musicians.

Rev. J. L. Petrie, the pastor of the church is in Eau Claire at the present time assisting in revival services and the choir of Grace church took advantage of the open evening. The loose collection of the evening goes towards the music fund of the choir.

Among the vocalists who were heard were Mrs. Charles G. Harris, Miss Cecilia Hughes, Miss Ruth Harris, Miss Margaret Williams, Miss Blodwen Lewis, Mrs. R. T. Morris, D. W. Rees, Leonard W. Kishart, and Harry Evans. Mrs. Francis Cope presented a reading. The accompaniments for the various soloists were played by Miss Kathryn Lewis, Miss Edna Weiss, Mrs. D. Duff Scott and Harry Hammond. Miss Lewis and Miss Weiss were also heard in piano solos.

The program was a splendid one and was thoroughly enjoyed. The chairman of the evening was Bart Richards.

The old car another year!

DEPRECIATION on an automobile is greatest the first year, becoming less each succeeding year; so, you see, it's good business to drive the old car another year, and use a part of that money to modernize, beautify and happyize your home. Nothing pays back so much in genuine satisfaction as money spent for good home furnishings!

Your BROADWAY and Mine BY WALTER WINCHELL

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

NEW YORK, March 18—You might have observed the report recently that R. R. Reilly created the new paper milk bottles now used by a big firm. Mr. Reilly, so the story goes, worked on the idea for many years, threatening to do away with the regular milk bottles because at one time his slumbers were disturbed by irritable neighbors who hurled them at meowing cats in the yard.

It appears that Mr. Reilly once had the toothache for a week. Various pain relievers failed him and just when he fell into unconsciousness from sheer exhaustion someone would arouse him by crashing a milk bottle to shoo the cats. It was then that he determined some day there would be nothing but paper milk bottles. He was a poor man when he started working on the plan and today he is rich.

He is plotting another revelation and the company he heads is taking little chance of losing his valuable co-operation, having insured him a week ago for a paltry $500,000.

IMAGINE! Perhaps you've seen her at the Capitol theater, or on the Ziegfeld roof. Her name is Charlotte Ayres, and she heads a chorusline of expert adagioists. The act is more sensational than any we've seen, and the hair-raising routines entice "Bravos!" and wild applause. They toss her from one end of the stage to the other, swing her by one hand as they would a lasso, and leave you gasping by using her as a skipping rope, among other things.

On the Sabbath, however, for want of excitement and a thrill, she teaches Sunday school!

IN CASE YOU DIDN'T KNOW Take it from one of the town's professional savantographers, when the tenants in the next apartment are engaging in a stiff tiff, and you are the sort who enjoys listening in without being caught at it, then place a tumbler (open side) against the wall and press your good ear to the bottom of the glass.

This trick amplifies the sound through the thickest walls, and—oh, boy! Some fun!

THE MORNING MAIL "Dear Winchell, affectionately writes Constant Reader (the type who never remembers where it was or who did it), "I wonder if you saw that article in the Denver paper, but I suppose you see every thing. Anyway, a fellow who writes a column took up that thing you had about the dramatic editor who was a member of an actor club that barred critics. Well, it seems you finished yours with 'Mr. Folwell was a member before becoming a dramatic editor in New York who has never covered a play, which probably accounts for his popularity on Broadway.'"

"Well, this Denver writer added that the reason you critics were not popular on Broadway was because you were fresh guys, all the time making up wise cracks at people, which I guess meant you. Then his next seven paragraphs were from your column, but it didn't say so. Ain't that the darg?"

Ain't?

SAYS TEN HERBS BROUGHT GOOD HEALTH TO HIM

Steel-Worker Rid Of Stomach Trouble, Rheumatism And Other Ailments.

"Ten Herbs surely has done me a world of good, and even friends remark how much better I look," was the recent statement of Mr. Maurice Osche, 317 South McKean street, Butler, to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at

MR. MAURICE OSCHÉ

Osche's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington street, this city, where he is daily demonstrating this famous new herbal medicine.

"I had suffered with my stomach for several years," continued Mr. Osche, who is a steel-worker. "My appetite was poor, and I was troubled with gas, cramps and bloating. I had a bad taste in my mouth and my tongue was heavily coated. My complexion was sallow. There were severe pains across my back. I became dizzy when I leaned over. Headaches came on me, and I had rheumatism in my shoulders. I got very little sleep, and felt miserable when I got up in the morning. The slightest thing would irritate me. At times it was hard for me to work. Sometimes when I sat down awhile I could hardly get on my feet and walk again. I had a severe cough."

"My wife suggested that I try Ten Herbs, which she had read about in the paper. I started using it and now my stomach is in fine condition, and my appetite is good. I am no longer troubled with gas, cramps or bloating. My tongue is clear. The pains have left my back. Dizzy spells and headaches have disappeared, and I am rid of rheumatism in my shoulders. Constipation has been ended, and my nerves are in good condition. I sleep soundly at night and feel rested when morning comes. I am glad to tell anyone what Ten Herbs has done for me."

More and more men and women of this section are reporting that Ten Herbs cured their health troubles. This modern liquid medicine relieves disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and cleanses and tones up the whole system.

The Ten Herbs Man is at Osche's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington street, this city, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

Youth Is Taken As Theme For Sermon

That impulsiveness, venturesomeness and idealism are the supreme qualities that either make or break a young man or young woman, as voiced in the sermon that Dr. S. E.

Irvine, pastor of the First U. P. church, presented to his congregation and visitors Sunday night. The message was prepared especially for young people.

Dr. Irvine's sermon was built around the story of the mysterious young man which the Bible records as having gone to Jesus, and while He was a prisoner of Judas and the soldiers. The pastor pointed out the three precise qualities which this at about 10 a. m.

WAR TIME LETTERS BY COL. LEASURE

Written From Battle-front During Civil War

From Papers of Late
Col. J. S. DuShane

Col. Daniel Leasure
Picture Property of T. A. Preston, 1218 East Washington Street.

Near Petersburg, Va.,
June 24, 1864.

Dear Papa—
Your kind letter of the 20th was received yesterday with an enclosure from Bell. I wrote you a letter on the 19th and also on the 20th giving you all the news I could think of. I saw the name of Major Hamilton of the 110th P. V. among the killed and supposed you would think it was Jeff.
He is safe and sound. I gave you a list of the casualties in commanding officers in the action of the 17th.

I think they are going to take the body of Captain Morrow home. Poor fellow, he has found a soldier's grave
in an enemy's country.
Our brigade was relieved from the front line last night and such a mixed up state of affairs you never saw.
The brigade commander has his headquarters away in the rear and from the time we are relieved the second until last night, we never saw, but one staff officer and he came after dark and stayed one minute. They know nothing about the lines.

We had two alarms while out, when we were relieved on pickets and we never saw anybody of either division or staff. We sent it on our own hook. If the brigade commander and his A. A. general did not hear the brigade headquarters blown up last night, it was because they had no cars, but they never saw a word.
There is too much Yankee element in our brigade. The brigade staff are all "Cookie men" and there are five Massachusetts regiments in the brigade.

I do hope and pray you will soon be yourself again but I would rather you would take Dr. Gross' advice and stay north. This is no place for you in your present state of health. You do not know how glad I would be to see you but I want to see you well.
I am in excellent health. I am getting fat and dirty, not having a change of clothing for some time or a chance to get a good wash.

I was told this morning that all trunks and valises of officers were to be brought to the front and let them get out what they want and then take them back. I think I will take your light blouse and hat out of trunk and wear them and you can get some in Philadelphia, for which I will pay you.

It is terribly warm here and my coat is very heavy, besides being torn to pieces, a piece of shell having passed through near my pocket, tearing a considerable hole but not even scratching the skin.

I received a Philadelphia Press of the 21st, this morning from you. It is as late as anything we have had.
As we are in the extreme front we cannot get the papers from the newsboys but they come through.
Anything will come by mail direct
now. Tell uncle he might send Jack a plug of tobacco by mail when he writes as it is a scarce article here and very high, especially when you have no money.

There has been terrible cannonading on our right for about an hour this morning which was succeeded by a charge. I think we will have to wait for the daily papers to know the particulars.

The commission for Moffatt, Joan-son, Co. D and Applegate came this morning. I am in a bad way about who to make sergeant-major. I want a smart fellow. Bob is a splendid
one. We have drawn one day's ration of soft bread this morning, the first for a long time. The boys will relish
it. Our commissariat is in very good condition now.

General Ledlie is undertaking to arm all enlisted men in his division company cooks among the number,
but he will have to take some swords
before he takes our company cook.
The company officers went stand for it and they are right. If we don't stand up for our rights and swear the thing though they will try and trample on us more and they cannot do that. Our officers are beginning to get their anger up and will not be imposed upon by General Ledlie or anybody else. We know what is right and we will have it.

Have you heard anything of C. L.
Dawson in Philadelphia? I suppose he will be sent there. Let me know if you hear anything from him as we are anxious to know how he is getting along. There is nothing more I can think of to tell you but will write to you as often as possible and keep you posted.

Affectionately your son,
GEORGE.

GROVE CITY, March 18.—Many farmers of the Grove City community to stay on their own farms or come to the hard roads on horseback as it is the only possible way to travel the dirt roads at this time. The bottom gone out of these roads. Even some of the roads where a thin top cover-

Dear Brother Lion:
Everything has been arranged for the big meeting in Farrell tomorrow night. We are to entertain them at a regular Lion's meeting at the Methodist church, corner of Spearman and Haywood streets. We will sit down to dinner at 6:30 sharp, following which we will put on a special program of music, comedy and speeches.

The primary motive of this meeting is to show our neighbors what a real Lion's Club is and what it does and consequently bring about the formation of a new club. They will have about 30 good men there for us to entertain and it behooves us to have as many of our club present. This is our opportunity to strut our stuff, so call off all other engagements for that evening.

We will meet at the Elks Club not later than 5:45 and go over in a fleet of cars. There will be no meeting at noon.
Lion Ramsey has this announcement to make concerning the convention at Altoona May 6th and 7th:
"We should have at least 30 members of the convention committee will see you in person within a few days and get something definite as to whether or not you will attend. We must know soon so that hotel reservations can be made. Transportation, convention and other expenses will be about $20 per person. Leave New Castle Monday morning, May 6th.
Leave Altoona Wednesday morning,
May 8th.
Let's go and boost New Castle for the 1929 convention."
Very truly yours,
THOMAS J. ELLIOTT,
Secretary.

Would Have Read To Propagation Farm Improved

Secretary Of Agriculture Jordan Urges Sportsmen To Act In Matter

Says Favorable Action By County Commissioners Would Be Meritorious

Dr. C. G. Jordan, one of Lawrence County's leading citizens and secretary of agriculture for the state of Pennsylvania, is up and at it, when there is something to be done that will benefit his home county of Lawrence.

It will be remembered that it was very largely through his efforts that Lawrence county was one of the two counties of the state to be awarded a game and bird propagation farm.

The result was that when it came to naming the farm, which is now an established fact within the confines of the county, that it was thought most fitting to name the farm after the county's friend, who had helped make it possible.

This was no sooner done, than Dr. Jordan voiced his heart felt appreciation in a letter to Alderman O. H. P. Green of the recognition accorded him.

In pursuance of his interest in these things, Dr. Jordan in a recent letter states that it has been brought to his attention that the game farm here is about a mile from the improved highway and that it would be a good thing, if the road to the farm could be ended and made possible at all times of the year.

He suggests that the county commissions be approached on the subject, stating that it was within their power to assist in putting dirt roads of the county in condition and that it would be a very meritorious piece of work for them to undertake.

He suggests that it would be a good move for the Lawrence County Sportsmen's Association to take the matter up with the county commissioners and indicate that this will be done.

Local Medical Student Very Seriously Sick

Word has been received here of the very serious illness of John Barrett, son of J. F. Barrett of Northview avenue, a senior in the medical school of the University of St. Louis, Mo. He was to have graduated in May, but it is feared that his present serious condition will interfere with his completion of his course at that time. He suffered a severe attack of the flu last December but recovered after about a month in the hospital at that time and was thought to be well. His present condition is said to be a complication resulting from this former attack of the flu. His many friends here will regret to learn of his serious condition.

Give Course On Concrete Mixing

State College Expert To Give Instruction To Local Builders

Much interest is evident in the short course in design and control of concrete mixtures which begins Tuesday evening, March 19, in the ballroom of The Castleton, New Castle, according to an announcement by E. N. Montague of the Engineering Extension Department of Pennsylvania State College, who will conduct the course.

At the first session, which will begin promptly at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow evening, the requirements of good concrete and the water-cement ratio law will be discussed. Some time will also be devoted to the elements of design of concrete mixtures and a mix will be designed by the "trial" method.

At the second session Wednesday evening, the lecture will include the relation between the mix, grading of aggregates, workability and strength together with the control of concrete in the field. A discussion and demonstration of the program of aggregates are also on the program.

The last session Thursday evening will deal with the making of concrete; the effect of factors other than proportioning on the quality of concrete in structures; and high-strength concrete.

All sessions will begin promptly at 7:30 p. m.

SEEK LONG TERMS FOR JOB HOLDERS

Proposition To Allow Sheriffs And County Treasurers To Succeed Themselves

HARRISBURG, March 18.—A proposed constitutional amendment of political importance was introduced in the senate this week by Senator Thaddeus S. Krause, Philadelphia. It would permit sheriffs and county treasurers to succeed themselves by removing from the Constitution the restriction against serving consecutive terms.

The amendment, however, would not benefit sheriffs or county treasurers now in office. If the amendment should be approved by the 1929 and 1931 legislatures, as is required, it could not be submitted to voters for ratification before November, 1933. If ratified then, it could not affect any candidates for these offices before the elections of 1935.

YORK, Neb., March 18.—A plug of tobacco on which a bite had let a perfect imprint of teeth was among the few clues officers had to more than 40 unsolved burglaries—unsolved until the sheriff at Aurora, at a card game with prisoners, invited them to "have a chew."

Leon Hudson was the only one to accept. His teeth prints corresponded to those on the clues. Officers said he confessed.

Both, returning to Altoona from a family reunion at Portage, were thrown through the windshield into a creek. When rescued they were partially submerged in the water. Two salesmen who saw the accident carried them from the stream.

Mrs. Cramer suffered a fractured skull and a possible fracture of the nose, and Cullen with a fractured skull and a fractured jaw were removed to a local hospital.

Wild Geese In Fog Strike Wall, Recover And Fly Off Again

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa., March 18.—Midvalley, near here, had an invasion of wild geese, which almost resulted in disaster for the birds thru a low-hanging fog.

The geese by hundreds, flying in formation, crashed against the south wall of the Midvalley schoolhouse and many fell to the ground.

A few men rushed up, but the birds, groggy at first, fought free and escaped. Apparently unharmed by their collision with the wall, they took wing again.

Preached His Own Funeral Sermon

By S. S. MYERS

On one occasion a "cub" reporter attempted to interview Mark Twain. "Whom do you regard as the most remarkable man you ever met?" inquired the reporter.

"Aaron Burr," replied Mark Twain, promptly.

"You don't mean to tell me you were born—but never mind, let that pass. What did you regard as remarkable about Aaron Burr?"

"Well, he was erratic in many ways and was always doing the unexpected. For instance, on the day of his funeral, while the procession was on the way to the cemetery he insisted on stopping to take a last look at the scenery."

"You—you—why that was most extraordinary! How would you account for such a thing?"

"Well, I never tried to account for it. You see it wasn't my funeral."

The above was brought to mind by an incident in connection with the recent death of Reverend "Golgithy" Morrill in San Diego California, who was pastor of a large congregation in the People's Church in Minneapolis and an evangelist of international reputation, as well as an author of considerable note. In his preaching and in his writings he was alike sensational, usually doing or saying the unexpected.

On the day of his funeral the friends gathered in the room in which the coffin containing the body of the Reverend Morrill, and when it was time for the service to begin those present were startled by hearing the voice of the dead clergyman preaching his own funeral sermon. It was rather an uncanny experience for the mourners.

Sometime before his death, during his last illness, he had preached his funeral sermon into a phonograph recorder and requested that the record be played over his coffin at the final ceremonies. At the proper time an attendant brought in the phonograph, placed it on a table beside the coffin and set it going.

The address was couched in rather a light vein, although it spoke a message of courage and faith. The Reverend Morrill was not afraid of the journey he was about to take and had pleasant anticipations of what awaited him on the other side.

In his will he left his Bible to the churches with the hope that it might Christianize them. He left his best wishes to the thief and the scoundrel woman, and his alarm clock he left to the police department of Minneapolis, his home city.

On one occasion he went to South America and when he came back he wrote a book entitled "To Hell and Back." He dedicated it to the devil. Concerning it he said: "I saw enough hell in South America to fill an encyclopedia, but out of regard to the patience of my readers I've limited it to one volume."

Of Mexico he said: "It is one sixteenth of an inch nearer hell than any other country I have ever visited in my round-the-world-travels. The Mexicans in Mexico stands for murder and Entertainment. Havana is the place where bad people go to have a good time. The more respectable the resort the more popular it is with high society. It is a paradise—yes, a Fools Paradise—a lurid limbo with loud clothes, lots of money, loose morals and light heads."

He was never at a loss for language to express his ideas.

The coinage of money is ascribed to the Lydians. Moneta was the name given to their silver by the Romans. It having been coined in the temple of June Moneta. Money was made of different metals, and even leather, and other articles, both in ancient and modern times. It was made of sheeps' tallow, a piece of leather, pasted over by the Hollanders as late as 1574.

Sorry! I've got a "date"

You would have thought that Marian played a saxophone, or had read one of those books on How To Be Popular, to hear her telephone ringing. And yet the explanation of what kept her "dated up" was simple. Right at the height of the winter social season, most of the girls in her set were ill at home, down with sniffles, red-noses, and stopped-up heads. But not Marian. She had found an old and trusted remedy: GROVE'S BROMO QUININE.

Whenever she got her feet wet, or felt chilly or vaguely ill, out came the little white box of tiny tablets. The laxative benefits though mild, were quick. The tonic effects though stronger, were equally quick. So she knocked the cold before it really got started. Or threw it off quickly. . . . ## Steen Returns From Florida

Comes Back On Train Because Of Flood Conditions In Georgia

Richard A. Steen, 205 East Moody avenue, well known clerk of the New Castle postoffice, has returned home and resumed his duties after spending several weeks in Florida. His wife will return later.

It had been the intention of Mr. Steen to drive back by automobile, having made the trip to St. Petersburg, Fla., in that manner, but he was forced to come back by train, owing to the flood conditions existing in Georgia on the route home. Because of these conditions his return was delayed several days longer than expected.

The flood conditions have not as yet interfered to any great extent with railroad traffic, although the water is very high in the districts through which the railroads must pass. It just happened that the train on which Mr. Steen was returning was the same train that was bearing back to their respective homes Lee Bible, who was killed at Daytona Beach, Fla., in an attempt to lower the world's speed record, and Charles Traub, the Pathe cameraman who was killed as the gigantic automobile driven by Bible skidded on a wet place in the track, hurled through the air to the side of the race course, hitting and killing Traub on its way to the side of the track, where it was wrecked and burned, during which Bible, the driver, was killed.

According to the story told by Mr. Steen, had Traub, the cameraman, stood with his machine instead of jumping to one side, he would have escaped death. His motion picture machine was undamaged, and in it was the picture taken of the mad dash of the car that caused his death. Following the wreck, souvenir hunters carried off what they could of the auto. About the only thing left of the speed automobile was the three motors, which were too heavy for the souvenir hunters to carry away. They even carried away the batteries.

There was a man on the train who had five spark plugs, which he claimed had been taken from the wrecked racing car. He asked $10 each for them.

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

MACHIAS, Me., March 18.—After four months of privation in the bitter cold Maine woods followed by a period in jail here the romance of a simple life has culminated for Miss Katherine Roche, 21 of Philadelphia, and Frederick W. Lawson, 27 of Dedham, Mass.

Their romance began in a Philadelphia dance hall and ended in the county jail here after they had eloped to live a meager life on fish which Lawson caught and bread begged from lumberjacks.

For four months they lived in a little hut in the woods, never with enough to eat, sleeping on rude beds. Lawson did some trapping but it did not suffice.

Miss Roche declared her love dead after they had been committed to jail, asserting that she had long been tired

Farmers Favor April In Moving

State Rural Inhabitants Not Governed By Attitude Of Nation's Farmers

By ARTHUR C. WIMER, WASHINGTON, D. C. March 18.—April is the favorite moving month for Pennsylvania farmers, although January is the month favored for moving by the farmers of the country as a whole, according to figures gathered by the census bureau which have never been published but which the bureau has presented to the house census committee.

Clairton Building Damaged By Blast

Officials Probe Blast In Clairton; Either Bomb Or Leaking Gas Is Cause

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, March 18.—One building was wrecked and six others damaged by an explosion which rocked the business district of Clairton, up the Monongahela river valley from here, early today. None was injured. The blast was caused either by a bomb or leaking gas, according to police and fire officials.

The force of the blast was expended in the grocery of James Zille. The windows in the First National Bank, next door, were shattered as were the windows in apartments above the two buildings.

Other buildings damaged were occupied by the Jaskoll department store, Strathern Brother Hardware store, Peach barber shop and pool room, and the Crawford store.

Lord Burghley Out Of Army For Trade

(International News Service) LONDON, March 18.—Lord Burghley, the famous Olympic runner, is to leave the Army for business.

At present he ranks as 2nd Lieutenant in the Grenadier Guards and is regarded as a particularly promising young soldier as well as being extraordinary popular with the rank and file. But he feels that in these days of heavy taxation on landowners the possessors of landed estates should cultivate other resources.

He is Lord Exeter's heir and will inherit about 27,000 acres of wonderful agricultural land in Northamptonshire and Rutlandshire.

"I shall start in business at the end of the summer," says Lord Burghley. "My father agrees with me in the step. In these days it is up to everyone with a family to pull his weight and especially in a family so burdened with taxation. There are also the question of death duties—about 40 per cent of the value of the estate at each death—to be considered. I want to have other resources than those dependent solely on agriculture."

Lord Burghley married Lady Mary Scott last January.

Girl Testifies Against Thaw

Witness In Her Suit Against Thaw For $100,000
Damages

TELLS STORY OF NEW YEAR'S AFFAIR

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

NEW YORK, March 18.—Crying softly and speaking in a slow, trembling voice, Marcia Estardus, 23-year-old showgirl, today told of an alleged attack made on her by Harry K. Thaw, Pittsburgh millionaire, during a New Year's eve party in Thaw's apartment.

She was called to the stand as her own witness in a $100,000 suit she brought against Thaw for "natural damages suffered by her person and spirit from the attack."

The whole affair started, Miss Estardus said, in the Washington Square apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Alexander, where she was on a party New Year's eve, 1927.

"At the Alexander party I met Morgan Pendleton, Thaw's secretary, and when the affair broke up went with him to Texas Guinan's club," she said.

"Were you drinking at the Alexander party?" William B. Roulston, her attorney, asked.

"Yes, I had cocktails—maybe two, maybe three."

"We then got into a taxicab. Pendleton, myself and another couple, and went to Guinan's. I had decided to go home when Pendleton suggested that I go with him to breakfast."

"We then drove to a house on West 73rd street and went into a dining room. That is where Thaw appeared."

"Had you ever met him before?" her attorney asked.

"Yes, at a roadhouse and also at a hotel where I was conducting a dance."

"Pendleton, however, introduced me and I fried eggs and fixed coffee for the party, which consisted of six persons."

"Among the persons at the party was Countess Olga, otherwise known as Tanara Thomas."

Miss Estardus, quietly dressed in blue, told of a marriage with a naval officer during the war from whom she was now divorced.

Previous to the girl's testimony, her mother, a white haired lady, had testified.

So said that her daughter, Mae O'Neill, was the sole support of the family which consisted of herself, and her crippled husband.

Previous to Mrs. O'Neill's appearance on the stand, William B. Roulston, attorney for Miss Estardus, painted Thaw as a notorious philanderer and a "scallywag."

Boston said that he would show "that the girl was enticed to go into a compartment in the residence of Thaw, who attacked her, knocked her down and bit her on the arms and body."

"My client," Roulston said, "suffered natural damages in person and spirit from such an attack."

"We will also show," he said, "that she was ashamed and humiliated and did not tell her mother or anyone of the attack until a month after it occurred."

"It will not be easy to prove as everyone at the party where the attack was made was a friend of Thaw."

Miss Estardus broke down as she was telling her story in which she pictured Thaw as a "crazy man."

"Mr. Thaw bit me for some reason. I didn't know what it was," she said.

"He had a brush in his hand. I ran to the door but it was locked."

"He then knocked me down on the floor. I fought with him, picking up everything that I could find and threw it at him, but he knocked me down again and then I knew that I was with a crazy man."

"When I tried to fight with him he bit me and tore my dress. He hit me wherever he could."

"I saw a window in the room and thought that the best I could do for my mother would be to jump out of it. When Mr. Thaw saw what I was going to do he opened the door."

"The next I remember I was on the floor and Morgan Pendleton, Thaw's secretary, was trying to bring me to. Thaw was racing up and down the hall. Pendleton then took me home."

Miss Estardus threw the defense counsel table into an uproar when she declared that a couple of months after the alleged attack is said to have taken place a man, posing as a newspaper reporter, came to her night club and offered his services as an attorney. She said, was none other than Thomas A. McGrath, one of Thaw's attorneys. When cautioned as to the seriousness of her statement, Miss Estardus said she knew she was making a serious charge but that "it is true."

Miss Estardus said that she did not tell anyone of the attack because she would be ruined if the matter came out.

A letter written by her to Thaw on January 7, a week after the party, was read into the evidence.

In the letter she told Thaw that she was going to forget the incident as she wanted no publicity and that she would see him from time to time at her dances. She also invited him to attend one of her events.

The red evening dress worn by Miss Estardus the night of the party was exhibited and she burst into tears as she identified the torn gown.

She removed her hat and said that Thaw had torn her hair out and that part of it had turned white from the treatment.

Fisher Discusses New Gasoline Tax

Governor Fisher Says Levies
Paid By Motorists Used
For Improved Track-
age

International News Service
HARRISBURG, March 18.—The various kinds of levies which the motorists pay are not really taxes but assessments to provide trackage for their automobiles under the theory advanced by Governor John S. Fisher today in discussing the possibility of a four cent gasoline levy.

The governor estimated that motorists now have $1,375,000,000 invested in automobiles. All the taxes which they now pay are less than five per cent on that valuation which is used to build roads for the operation of automobiles.

A four cent gas levy, the governor said, continues to be one of the main subjects under discussion of the leaders here.

Among the recommendations for higher salaries for the majority of public officials that increasing the pay of judges received special study, the governor said. The proposed increase would total $750,000 a year without considering the creation of additional judicial posts by the present legislature.

Selling Floods Stock Market This Afternoon

By W. S. COUSINS
International News Service Financial Editor

NEW YORK, March 18.—Having stirred up an enormous nation-wide interest in speculation, the Wall Street Bulls stood aside today and permitted the outsiders to buy the stocks which they had pushed to peak prices last week and in which they had a bag-full of profits. Beginning in the early afternoon, the tide of speculative selling flooded the market and prices of many of the active shares were forced down from 1 to 5 points.

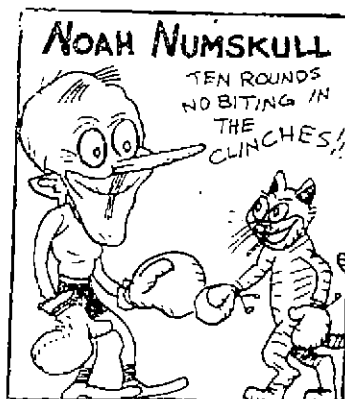

The coppers were by all odds the best ground-gainers but even their advance was blocked as the session advanced by an ocean wave of speculative selling which poured in from all sides. Radio new stock drew the speculative lime-light in one of the most active days in the brilliant record of that stock. With the disappearance with a few days of the old stocks, a big Wall Street pool has been grooming the new split-up shares as its worthy successor—and making a fine job of it. Radio new started the week at 109, dipped to 103-1/4 and advanced under an enormous turnover to 106. The old stock meanwhile dropping 15 points to 532.

He spoke fluently of the distance in figures that the earth is from the sun, the moon and numerous planets which compose the heavens.

RECEDING WATERS REVEAL GREAT PROPERTY DAMAGE

public buildings were still standing, all of them were in a badly damaged condition. Water was still sweeping through the business district this morning, but at much lower stage than a day or two ago.

Wooden dwellings were cracked in like egg shells. Many homes had been carried along several blocks from where they originally stood. Others had been transformed into driftwood. Some homes were carried down the river a mile or more. A few of the homes on the high hill parts of the town were intact and people were living in them as if nothing had happened.

Live in Tents Elba has the appearance of a beleaguered city. All about it, on both sides of the river, tents had been erected by the Alabama National Guard under the command of Colonel W. A. Gayle. He was given able assistance in supplying provisions to the refugees by Colonel W. E. Persons and Captain J. W. Hicks. Nearly all the victims had been taken out of the stricken city today. They were removed from their floating homes to shore by the National Guardsmen and volunteer boatmen and were taken to nearby farm houses and to the cities of Troy, Opp, Enterprise, Ozark and Dothan.

When the International News Service correspondent entered Elba early in the morning the city was in darkness. For the power plant had been put out of commission. Men were sleeping on the floors in the tents and in automobiles on the roads. Women and children were asleep, six and seven in a row, in some of the homes located on high ground and out of danger. Most of the residents, however, had been taken away to distant towns. Candles and lamps were the only means of illumination. Daylight revealed the state of mind of many of the refugees to be that of great anxiety. They stood on high ground and looked across the river, wondering what had happened to members of their families.

City Is Wreck The bridge connecting the east and west sections of the city had been washed away and it was virtually impossible to cross by boat over the swirling waters.

The courthouse seemed to be intact and the spires of First Baptist and the First Methodist churches stuck up out of the water. The Garrett Hotel was a wreck. The May building was badly damaged and about half of the homes were off their foundations. Fully one-third of the buildings were completely demolished.

Martial law was in effect in Elba and the highways were guarded by troops who prevented curiosity seekers from entering the area. Red Cross workers, members of the American Legion, Boy Scouts and volunteer workmen toiled unceasingly, meanwhile, to see that provisions reached all those who were still marooned.

The situation at Geneva was much similar to conditions at Elba, although a second rise in the flood waters at Geneva complicated matters there. Relief crews were on the scene, having been dispatched from half a dozen cities. National Guardsmen had erected an emergency camp.

Flee From Geneva Hundreds of people fled from Geneva when it first became apparent that the threatened rise of the waters was coming. Unlike Elba, Geneva had plenty of warnings. The water at Geneva reached a depth of 12 feet in the main part of the city. Homes were uprooted and floated about among the debris. Practically every store in the business section was inundated.

Further north in Alabama, in the vicinity of Montgomery, the raging floods of the Alabama, Coosa and Tallapoosa rivers had driven several thousand persons from their homes. More than 600 homes, mostly occupied by negroes, were flooded within a 15-mile radius of Montgomery. With what little belongings they could gather up, the colored folks fled along the countryside.

It is estimated that fully 20,000 persons were affected by the floods which swept Alabama and parts of Georgia and northwestern Florida, and it is believed that at least a dozen deaths were caused over the entire area.

The flood situation, however, was slowly improving today. There have been no rains in the last two days in the vicinity of Elba and the waters have been gradually receding until it is now felt that the danger here is practically over.

Nowadays it is quite unnecessary to invent a better mousetrap in order to have a path beaten to your door. Just run up a lot of bills you can't pay.—The Louisville Times.

The Story Of American Industry
Iron And Steel—(Part Two)—Colonial Furnaces

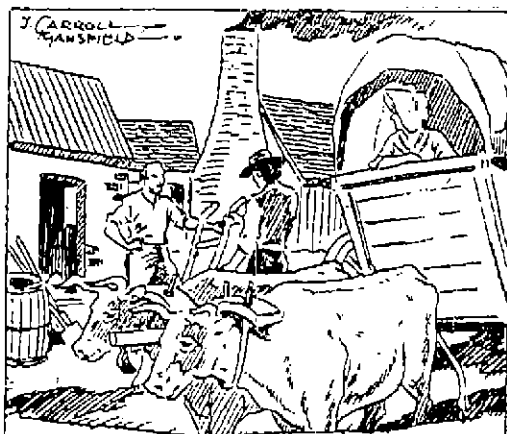

THE EARLY AMERICAN FURNACES AND FOUNDRIES WERE EXTREMELY CRUDE. IN THOSE DAYS IT WAS NECESSARY FOR THE IRON MASTER TO REHEAT AND HAMMER HIS IRON OVER AND OVER TO REMOVE ITS IMPURITIES, AND BRING IT TO A WORKABLE STATE. HOWEVER, IRON MANUFACTURING IN AMERICA WAS A THRIVING INDUSTRY FROM THE START.

IN 1750, TO PROTECT THE IRON MANUFACTURERS OF ENGLAND, THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT PASSED A BILL PLACING RESTRICTIONS UPON THE GROWING IRON INDUSTRY OF THE AMERICAN COLONIES. THE NUMBER OF SLITTING MILLS AND FOUNDRIES WAS TO BE LIMITED, AND ONLY BAR IRON ALLOWED TO BE EXPORTED TO ENGLAND. THE AMERICANS PAID LITTLE HEED TO THIS LAW AND KEPT ON ERECTING MILLS IN RESPONSE TO THE INCREASING DEMAND FOR IRON.

LATER, DURING THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR THE COLONIAL IRON-MASTERS RENDERED VALUABLE SERVICE TO THE AMERICAN CAUSE IN CASTING CANNON AND CANNON BALLS FOR THE CONTINENTAL ARMY.

AFTER THE REVOLUTION, AS THE TIDE OF EMIGRATION BEGAN TO SURGE WESTWARD OVER THE ALLEGHENY MOUNTAINS, MANY FURNACES WERE SET UP IN THE OHIO VALLEY TO MEET THE DEMAND OF THE SETTLERS FOR IRON IMPLEMENTS.

Al Webster To Fight Perotia

Sammy Harris And Tony Brown Meet In Semi-Final Bout

MUNROE SCHEDULED TO BATTLE MAXIE

THAT portion of the multitude which prefers a lunch to a science should get an eye-ful tonight when Al Webster, Billings, Mont., and George Perotia, New Castle, middleweights, battle in a 10-round bout at Jolly Bowl.

Webster has been fighting throughout the western states and bears a good reputation, according to boxing records, and is accredited with having not only knocked out Walcott Langford, but having out-fought George Courtney, Babe McGurgary and others.

Perotia recently made a bid for honors he once held in the ring when he boxed 10 hard rounds with Floyd Hybert of Ashland. The judges gave George an even break at the end of the grueling battle and he returned immediately to training.

Perotia believes a victory over Webster would restore him to the limelight and he hopes to win tonight's encounter. Should the westerner fall before the middleweight pride of New Castle, there would be little occasion for him to continue eastward.

Aggressive Batter
According to reports which have preceded Webster, he is of the Dillon aggressive type and wades in from bell to bell. Should this be true, the Montana wildcat will discover that Perotia is not lagging in this style of fighting.

Anticipations are that a big crowd will be present to see the middleweights prance and punch. Perotia has a big following here and they believe that following his long campaign of training, plus his tune-up battle with Hybert, he is now fit for the grueling test.

Sammy Harris, Akron, and Tony Brown, Jamestown, N. Y., 132, meet in the six-round semi-final. Harris is a very clever boxer and a solid puncher. Brown is reputed to be a "Grob" for action and likes to be in the thick of the "going". He should find plenty of it tonight.

New Faces on Card
Alvie Miller, one of Ohio's best junior lightweights, will tackle Bobby Belford, formerly of Rochester, Pa., in a six-round set-to at 133 pounds. Miller has boxed several main bouts in Ohio cities and agreed to take on Belford here to show his mettle to local fans.

Frankie Munroe, Pittsburgh, and Maxie Brown, Youngstown, will clash in the second four-round fight. Maxie was to have boxed Nick Polis, but when Nick fell off a scaffold that killed the long-winded bout, so Munroe was substituted. Munroe is a husky 165-pounder.

Johnny Jennings, knockout artist from the South Side, will romp with a 133-pounder, sponsored by Patsy Brannigan in the first four-round bout. Jennings hopes to win and meet Young Shiek of Wampum in a show in the near future.

According to Phil Greer, in charge of the ticket-reservations, the advance sale for tonight augurs for a big crowd. The first bout will start at 8:15 p. m. The bout will be under the jurisdiction of the Pennsylvania athletic commission.

Young Shiek of Wampum, representative of the lake division of the P. R. R., knocked out Bobby Belford, Eastern Ohio division, in the first round of the P. R. R. meet at Olean Friday evening and lost a decision to Frankie Moran of the West Penn division in three rounds. The fans thought Shiek should have had the award as he rolled Moran twice in the first round.

Shiek sent Belford down with a left hook to the jaw and his victory was a surprise to the railroad fans, likewise his showing against Moran. He was to have boxed here, but had to forego the engagement owing to the bout at Olean. Belford thought Shiek easy and was keyed. Due to the Jolly Bowl having a contract with Belford, it is necessary to use him, otherwise Shiek would take his place tonight. Shiek will box here next week.

It looks as though the next bout here will be staged Monday night, as negotiations between Midget Westgate and Frisco Grande are about concluded. It will be known some time today if the Midget will accept the engagement. If he does the fans will certainly see one of the grandest exhibitions of boxing they have witnessed here, as Westgate is a great favorite with the crowd, though he has only appeared here once.

East Liberty Wins "Y" Tournament By Beating Johnstown

East Liberty Defeats Johnstown, 48 To 36, In Final Game For Sectional Title

Johnstown Forced To Play Three Games; Tourney Here Is Big Success

Forced to play three basketball games in one day, the crack Johnstown "Y" quintet was defeated by the strong East Liberty team of Pittsburgh by a score of 48 to 36 for the western sectional title at the New Castle floor on Saturday evening. The two-day tournament held in this city was a big success and reflects credit on the local institution officials.

By a twist of fate the tourney officials were forced to listen to a protest from Johnstown, regarding the playing by Juniata of Carney. Johnstown claimed that Carney was a semi-professional player and as such was not entitled to enter the tourney. The Juniata-Johnstown game was ordered played over and Johnstown was the winner 36 to 21. The Johnstown team led the Juniata crew from the start. At half time the count was 23 to 13. Moore, Seitz and Anthony were the big guns in the Johnstown offense, while Sands and Adams carried the burden for Juniata.

East Liberty Wins.
Saturday afternoon East Liberty defeated Sharpshurg 44 to 33. The game was fast and hard fought in every period. At half time the East Liberty team was behind 22 to 13, but a rally in the second half carried the Pittsburgh entry through. Waughman, Ewing and Carlson were the stars for the East Liberty team. For Sharpshurg the playing of McCracken, Williams and Kinzel featured. Sharpshurg made the majority of their points in the second half from the free line, getting a total of 18 out of 26. Sharpshurg was held to a lone field goal in the second half. The defense of the East Liberty team was functioning properly.

Hilltop Defeated.
Johnstown was called on to face Hilltop and defeated the Pittsburgh team 32 to 27 in one of the smoothest and fastest games of the tourney. The Johnstown team took the lead in the first half 17 to 12 and held it the remainder of the game. The playing of Seitz, Thomas and Moore featured for Johnstown. The work of Brown, Moulder and Witzel was the best for Hilltop. The Hilltop team threatened to overtake the Johnstowners in the final moments of the game but the rally was cut short.

Saturday evening the Johnstown team came back to the court to battle East Liberty in the final game for the sectional title. The winner of this game, East Liberty, will meet the winner of the eastern sectional title for the state championship. The East Liberty crew took a lead of 23 to 22 in the first half of play. The first two periods were hard fought and very interesting to the quite large crowd that filled into the "Y" for the final battle. The East Liberty team, led by Brown, Ewing and Brown, proceeded to make things miserable for Johnstown in the final half of the game. Johnstown was held to five field goals the second half. East Liberty tallied 12 buckets with Ewing, McCaslin, Brown and Maroon leading the way. Moore, James and Anthony were the featured players on the Johnstown team.

Tourney Well Handled.
The officiating in the tourney was of the highest standard, with the following holding the whistles: Richards, Waddington, Nolte and Ocen. Walter E. Kirkor, physical director of the New Castle Y. M. C. A., who had charge of the tournament, said today that the affair was the finest of its kind ever held in western Pennsylvania, and while it was not much of a financial success, was very gratifying to the local officials. About 107 athletes, representing nine Y. M. C. A.'s, were gathered here during the two-day meeting.

Baseball Ruzzlers

By CHARLEY BARRETT
Big League Scout Writing for Central Press and New Castle News

Occasionally a situation turns up in a game where an umpire is called upon to make a common sense ruling. There are a number of odd situations that arise that are not covered in the rule book.

I remember several years ago I went to Oke Grove, Mo., to look over a big country pitcher by the name of Elam Vangilder, who was knocking the rural boys cold with a fast ball.

Vangilder was on the ball in this Sunday game against a team from Perryville, a nearby town. The usual pickup collection of semi-pros, bushers and ringers were collected on each side. The intertown rivalry was very keen.

The game was not particularly exciting as Vangilder was too good a pitcher for the other fellows, but a play came up the last part of the eighth inning that caused more than ordinary commotion.

The Cape was bunting and had two out and no one on the base. The batter also had two strikes and on the next pitch was promptly called out. He turned to argue the point and noticed the catcher had dropped the ball. Instead of running to first he continued jawing with the ump. The catcher then threw the ball to the pitcher who dropped it into his hip pocket and started walking off the field.

At this time, spurred by shouts from the bench, the batsman sprinted toward first. The pitcher, likewise realizing the situation, also sprinted to the bag, trying all the while to get the ball out of his pocket. It was a close race, but the pitcher got there first, still clutching at his pocket.

The base umpire ruled the runner out, then reversed himself when the offensive side pointed out that the pitcher had another ball in the same pocket.

It led to a real country argument, and had the score been close it might have provoked a hot time for that umpire, no matter which way he ruled.

Anyway, it is more charitable to believe in evolution and assume that man is still in the raw state.

Athletics To Be In Thick Of Fight For Pennant This Year

Connie Mack Says Athletics Look Ready To Crash Through With Pennant Victory

Wilmington High Presses Reserves

Post Season Game In College Gym Proves To Be Rather Surprise

Lefty Grove Is Improved Pitcher This Season; Must Beat Yankees

MIAMI, Fla., March 18.—"I expect a great deal from the A's this year. I'm not predicting the pennant, however, because anything can happen in baseball."

"This talk of my club lacking kameness is all foolishness. Ours is a good team, improving all the time, and will play first class ball." Connie Mack, sixty-six year old skipper of the Philadelphia Athletics, said today.

Mack's two able assistants, Eddie Collins and Kid Gleason, both former managers of the Chicago White Sox are both on hand. Ultimately, it is reported, Collins will run the team when Mack steps aside, although Collins shows no indication of doing so.

"The team that beats the New York Yankees will, of course, win the pennant this year," said Mack, although the Detroit club looks awfully good to me. The Yankees are not a young team and if they are beaten they will drop below second place. I would not be surprised to see this happen."

Detroit Looks Good.

"I like almost all the American League clubs this season and I look for a wonderful race. I do not anticipate a two-club fight such as we had last year. I could not see Detroit last season because they had a lot of sickness and their players did not play up to standard."

But Bucky Harris is a great manager and I would not be surprised to see him quickly develop the Tigers into a great team.

"My club should do very well. The public may be expecting a lot of us and I hope we don't disappoint them. My idea, however, is to give the public good baseball and let the matter of winners and losers take care of itself."

Grove Improved.

Mack took occasion, in reply to a question, to declare that "there is no question of the gameness of Lefty Grove" or other players on the team. It will be recalled that Grove lost several crucial games to the New York Yankees last season although he easily beat the other clubs in the league.

Outlining his probable line-up for this season, Mack said Mickey Cochrane, voted the most valuable player in the league last year, and Cy Perkins, will do the bulk of catching. The first string pitchers will comprise Grove, Ed Rommel, Howard Ehmke, George Wulberg, George Earnshaw and Jack Quinn, the forty-one year old veteran obtained from the Red Sox via the waiver route. Mack said he "thinks well of" Bill Beckbreide, a right hander who started with Dartmouth last year pitching five shutouts, one a no-hit game against Williams. Mack also likes a young pitcher named Carl Yerkes, a nephew of Steve Yerkes, the old second baseman. There are several other good rookie pitchers in camp, including Bill Shores and Stewart Bolton.

Several Fine Rookies.

Mack outlined his infield as follows: Orrell at first, Dykes or Bishop at second and Fox on third, with Sammy Hale, heavy-priced infielder from the Pacific Coast, in reserve. Short stop position will be held down by Joe Boley, formerly of the Baltimore Orioles.

The outfield will be made up of Miller in right, Haas in center and Al Simmons in left. If Simmons' lameness persists, Homer Summons or Dewitt Le Beauveau will take his place. Mack also likes a rookie outfielder, Nick Morelli, a former football star at Muenchenberg University, Allentown, Pa.

Holdout problems have not been worrying Mack, the only real holdout being Second Baseman Max Bishop, who finally came to terms.

Madison Square Garden On Feet; Profits Shown

In Past 10 Weeks Madison Square Garden Has Shown Tremendous Profit

CONTENDERS ARE BEING PUSHED

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service
NEW YORK, March 18.—Ten weeks ago they said it would be a frigid afternoon in August when boxing at Madison Square Garden recovered from the death of Tex Rickard. Today, boxing at the Garden is touching the pinnacle of unprecedented prosperity.

There is no attempt to prove that the Garden Corporation is more prosperous without Rickard. It is a statement of fact, an amazing fact. Through more or less official figures, made available for the writer today, it was revealed that a total of $1,028,902.62 represented the net proceeds from boxing at the Garden during the last five months. Not the net profits; merely the receipts that were left after the government deducted its taxes, amounting usually to about thirty percent of the gross.

Receipts Are Big.

All records for sport promotion, boxing included, are written out of existence by these figures. Much the same thing happens in the case of attendances, the five months showing a total sale of about 229,000 tickets for twenty shows. Not a champion in any class has been identified with the Garden during the five months in question.

Yes, the Garden has ignored the expensive champions who won't fight and is playing with the contenders and near-contenders, who will and do. The result has been that it has sold itself out something like eleven times in twenty attempts, and that there hasn't been a really light crowd on the premises since early October.

Many, looking for the answer, have named Tom McCardle, the man who made the matches. Others have seen the inspiration in the development of new fighters like Schmeling, Al Singer and Christner. Both undoubtedly have contributed much; they haven't given all.

Rickard no longer is here to pull the wires, behind the scenes, that the puppets may dance. He is dead but the influence of his administration at Madison Square Garden didn't die with him. He built this institution to endure. He planned the winter campaign of 1928-29 well in advance, steadfast in the notion that it would be his greatest, and he foresaw in McCardle a man who would make these plans live. Rickard saw the chirography on the wall when the summer season laid right down and died in its own blood and his program for the winter was more fighting at less cost. The Garden is doing no more than this today.

Lenten Services At St. Joseph's Church

To Observe The Feast Of St. Joseph Foster Father Of Christ On Tuesday

Tomorrow, Tuesday, the feast of St. Joseph, the foster father of Christ will be observed at St. Joseph's church. There will be high mass and benediction and Gospel reading at 9 a. m.

At 7:45 p. m., the usual lenten service and in addition the beginning of the thirteen Tuesdays in honor of St. Anthony. The topic will be, "The Churches Attitude to Spiritualism." The text will be, "Jesus Said to His Disciples, Beware of False Prophets Who Come to You in the Clothing of Sheep."

The members of the choir are having regular rehearsals for the Easter musical program and to take part in the liturgical functions of Holy week. The services last evening were well attended, showing a lively interest in the Sunday evening lenten course of sermons. The subject was "The Mercy of God." The text was, "If your sins be as scarlet they shall be made as white as snow and if they be red as crimson they shall be white as wool."

Nucleus Of British Golf Team

By QUIN HALL.
While no definite announcement has been made concerning the personnel of the British Ryder Cup team which will compete with the American team at Moortown near Leeds in England April 26-27, it is apparent that such players as Archie Compston, George Duncan and Abe Mitchell must be included in the list.

Duncan the wiry-faced Scot who doesn't specialize in elaborate preliminary flourishes, is sure of a berth as he has been chosen Ray. It is doubtful if a better choice could be made. While George is not the greatest golfer who ever twiddled a niblick, he has much in his favor to recommend him for that captaincy. There is no such thing as quit in Duncan's make-up. While he may take chances on short cuts which other golfers would shun and while he is a poor putter—and admits it—he is still a marvel on the course and well equipped to captain the British team.

Duncan wastes no time in making his shots and has been referred to as a golf fanatic. In other words his attitude seems to be that whatever is going to happen will occur and fussing around with stances and such is not going to alter it to any marked degree. He has said that a golfer is either a good putter or he isn't. Duncan admits being of the latter class and lets it go at that. He is blunt and plain spoken; and is said to have a sense of humor which rivals Jack Hutchison's and which he saves for the 19th hole. Duncan should make an inspiring captain.

Abe Mitchell while his play of late has been rather a disappointment, will surely be eliminated when the definite list is filed. Abe is a private professional to Mr. Ryder, donor of the cup, at $5,000 a year, with time off to enable him to enter all the big competitions. He has never really recovered from the effects of illness last year. Mitchell has always suffered from an inferiority complex but he customarily plays a rather swanky game on British soil and next month he may surprise the fans both here and in England.

It is now generally conceded that Archie Compston was "playing over his head" when he smothered Walter Hagen in that special match with Lantask rounds of 68 and 67 at Moor Park last April. Not much has been heard of the big Englishman since he returned from the United States aside from the fact that he had accepted the post of professional at Combe Hill Club at Kingston near London. Compston, however, is an outstanding golfer on the other side and it's a certainty that he will be in action when the Ryder cup match gets under way.

Aubrey Boonier is another almost certain starter. This blond chap looks like the Prince of Wales, has made two trips to the United States and is one of the best shotmakers among the British younger "pros." Aubrey is noted for a lightning fast backstroke which is seldom found suited to that control of the ball which spurs consistency over the long route of 72 holes.

A peculiar thing about golf in England is that the British do not know just what is to be considered their leading pro golfer. This vague distinction might well be settled between a quartet made up of Archie Compston, Abe Mitchell, C. A. Whitcombe and T. H. Cotton—and, incidentally the last two named, probably will start in the Ryder play.

Pro golf in England isn't what it is over here.

COURT DENIES PENNSY RIGHT OF JUDGMENT

Mercer Judge Rules Sharpville Railroad Not Bound To Pay Money

(Special To The News)
MERCER, March 18.—Judge J. A. McLaughrey, in court session here this morning, refused to grant judgment to the Pennsylvania Railroad company against the Sharpville Railroad company, following a common plea hearing in which the Pennsylvania company petitioned the court for the right to take action against the Sharpville for payment of an amount of money which the former charged was due.

Attorney A. Martin Graham, New Castle, representing the Pennsylvania company, contended that his company, from 1921 until 1924, had hauled 20,034 Sharpville freight cars over its line under an agreement that an association of railroads had made calling for the payment of a dollar a day for each car to the company that hauled the cars, from the company whose cars were hauled. The Sharpville company alleged that no such agreement had been entered into and that the money was not due the Pennsylvania company.

The Sharpville company owns and operates a single track road from New Wilmington Junction, several miles to the north of New Castle, to the town of Sharpville, farther north. As a result of Judge McLaughrey's refusal, the Sharpville will not pay the amount asked by the Pennsylvania.

Plenty Of Color.

Judge Fuchs says his team has "plenty of color" and that is what he wants.

His idea of a good ball player is one who can "electrify" the fans. Fuchs told me that when he gets his idea across to his players and to Johnny Evers, his assistant manager, he plans to turn the managerial reins over to Johnny. But that is some distance away. The judge outlined his team as it probably will start the season as follows:

Several Good Pitchers.

Catchers: Collins, Taylor and Spohrer, with Leggett in reserve. Pitchers: Branch, Greenfield, Leaney, Percy Jones, Bob Smith, Wertz and Canfield. Fuchs added that Seibold and Conningham, rookies, look good; that Jack Cooney was staging a comeback; that Leavett, an old head up from Indianapolis for another big league try, may deliver; and that Elmer Hearn, a young southpaw, is all right, "now that he has acquired control."

The infield will be made up of Siler at first, Maguire who came from the Chicago Cubs in the Hornsby deal at second, either Maranville or Farrell at shortstop and Lester Bell at third.

Richbourg, in right, Earl Clark in center and Harper in left, will make up the regular outfield.

Judge Fuchs' "old guard" consists of Evers, of the famed Timbers; Evers to chance combine Rabbit Maranville, as peppy as ever, George Siler, the great first baseman, and Joe Dugan, the one time star third baseman of the Yankees.

Judge Emil A. Fuchs, Acting In Managerial Role, Assisted By Johnny Evers

Hope To Lead Braves Out Of Cellar Position In National League

By JAMES L. KILGALLIN

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 18.—"I cannot do the Boston Braves any harm and I may be able to do them some good. I hope to be able to help them ten or fifteen per cent. I want the Braves to change from a drab, heads down team to a colorful club that spins machine baseball. I don't want them to play orthodox ball."

Wife Says Husband Stayed Out Late, Then Beat Her Up

Mrs. Eleanor Hook Shows Jury Scar Over Right Eye As Result Of Blow

Charles Hook, alias Robert Clark was placed on trial before Judge Hilbrand in court this morning on a charge of assault and battery made by his wife, Eleanor Hook. The couple were married January 13, 1928 and lived together until Oct. 22, 1928. During their married life Mrs. Hook testified that she had worked and helped to pay the rent and keep up the house. On October 28th, they were living on Quest street. Mrs. Hook said that her husband told her that he was going down to a pool room about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. She did not see him again until he came home about 7 a. m. When she asked him where he had been, he alleged that he told her that it was none of her business. They got into a quarrel during which Hook was alleged to have struck his wife a blow over the right eye, which cut the scalp. Mrs. Hook exhibited the scar she said was made by the wound. To the jury, she claimed that Hook had been at a dance the night that the trouble occurred. The case is still on trial.

In our State 25,000 retail dealers are collecting the Gasoline Tax. Millions of Dollars Are Lost In Collecting Through This System

All States in the United States collect gasoline tax except two, and all States collecting gasoline tax do it through the Wholesale Distributor except Pennsylvania. We have 25,000 retail dealers, and approximately 600 Wholesale Distributors in Pennsylvania. Does it not seem reasonable we can collect more tax through the wholesaler, and at less cost than by the present system. The Petroleum Marketers of Pennsylvania have asked the Gasoline Bureau to collect all the 3c gas tax, rather than increase the tax.

Therefore House Bill No. 1435 Was Introduced By Mr. Grover C. Talbot, Feb. 26, 1929

This bill places the responsibility of collecting the tax on the Wholesale Distributors, and requires them to be bonded for payment of same. We are opposed to an increase in Gas Tax, until we have 100% collection of present 3c tax.

Emmanuel Church Calls Rev. Childs

Former Pastor Of Harmony Baptist Church To Assume Duties April 1

At a largely attended and representative gathering of the members of the Emmanuel Baptist church held last night following the regular service of the church, Rev. Floyd C. Childs of Colver, Pa., former pastor of the Harmony Baptist church, was extended a call to become pastor of the local church, the pulpit of which has been vacant for approximately a year.

W. A. Johns presided at the meeting of the congregation and Rev. Childs received a majority of the votes cast for the several candidates in the balloting and when the result was made known his call was made unanimous.

Rev. Childs was heard on three different occasions by the congregation and made a very favorable impression, which resulted in his selection. It is understood that he will probably accept the call. He is to assume his duties with the congregation on April 1.

Rev. Childs has been very successful in previous pastorates and being a man in the prime of life and a great worker and fine preacher, is expected to do an excellent work at Emmanuel Baptist church. ## Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

He came in to the police station, ragged, unshaven, and unkempt. Under what might have been a fairly decent hat one day, was a shock of dirty gray hair. It might have been six weeks since it had been cut or it might have been six months.

Matted and tangled and streaked with dirt, face bristling with an unshaven beard, coat held together with a safety pin and shoes that were four sizes too large for him, he was a sad looking sight.

And yet one day there were possibilities there, it seems to me. Those regular features and high forehead surely meant something that rather refined tone of voice had something back of it and the eyes had a warning gleam that spoke of a time when he was a real man.

All he wanted was a chance to get warm, so he said. In a sad way he complained that he wanted work, he was only 67, he insisted but he couldn't land anything.

A typical bum if there ever was one. And yet as he stood there pleading for a chance to get warm, I wondered what had brought him to such a plight. Sixty-seven years and a down and outer with neither home, clothes, nor money. Nothing but the rags on his back, no place to go nothing to do.

Just a bit of human filaments, a wreck on the rocks of life, a drifter.

Unless they did something about it, a very charming young lady and a couple of young men are still driving around the city on a truck, looking for a place to put some stage scenery.

The last I saw of the truck it was parked on East street, with the scenery sticking out of the back of the truck and the rain doing its best to plump it.

The lady was willing to park it any place but where to go was the question. "Dulcy" must be put on, the scenery must be saved but up until noon Saturday they had found no place.

Scenery is so deuced cumbersome to put under one's bed and the folks wouldn't care to clutter up the living room. The city ordinances prohibit hanging it on a pole and so there was only one thing to do. Hunt a place.

More Grass Fires Reported Sunday

Four Still Alarms Are Answered By Assistant Chief Craig

Assistant Chief Craig was kept on the jump Sunday, extinguishing grass fires in various sections of the city. Most of the alarms were turned in during the evening.

At 6:15 Sunday evening, Assistant Chief Craig and Officer Kennedy extinguished a grass fire near the old coke ovens along the Pennsylvania railroad below Riverside avenue in the Croton district.

At 7:15, a grass fire was reported near the garbage plant along Sampson street, but Assistant Chief Craig found no blaze there. A fire was found across the river on the hillside above the Water Works.

At 8:15, two alarms were sent in, one from the end of Butler avenue and one from Scott street. In the former instance, the home of W. B. Cox of 1025 Butler avenue was threatened and Craig went out and put the fire out. In the latter case, the fire which was located on the old golf links had been extinguished by the time Craig arrived.
